LONDON, Aug. 11.—German submarines have renewed their activity, and in the last three days have sunk eighteen vessels, ten of which were British trawlers, and four of which belonged to neutral countries.

The sinking of eleven craft was announced this afternoon. They were the British steamer Oakwood, the Norwegian bark Morna, the French bark François, the Russian bark Baltzer, and seven trawlers—the Young Admiral, the George Crabbe, the Illustrious, Calm, Trevire, Welcome and Utopia. The crews of all the vessels were saved.

The British steamer Rosalie of 2,725 tons net, which sailed from Shields on Aug. 10 for San Francisco, has been beached. Her crew was saved.
